

Company Overview

Written by MSTART - Company

MSTART is a professional e-business consulting group focused on combining strategy, creativity and technology to deliver measurable results on time and on budget for our clients.

Founded in 2000, MSTART is a privately owned consulting group, based in Montreal Canada with offices in the Middle East.

As e-business solution provider in Canada and the Middle East, MSTART enables organizations to effectively develop, implement, and manage performance-centric e-business strategies;

MSTART e-business services are consulting, technology solutions, outsourcing, and training;

MSTART Management is a dynamic team of savvy and experienced technology professionals ready to work with your firm to achieve its goals. Our strength is our people, our passion is technology.

In order to provide clients with the highest technical standards in the industry, MSTART has an established network of partners and alliances that offer clients complete e-business solutions with a global reach.

MSTART has strategic alliances with a range of reputable technology companies, including KCSC, eVision, AD-COM, BAM Strategy, and others; Partners include Rapid7, Untangle, GFI, Acronis, DocuWare, WSI and others.

For contact details, please visit our contact page.